how to run a successful GOLF TOURNAMENT

The first two things to determine when planning your tournament are “What do you hope your tournament will accomplish?” and “Why will golfers, businesses, organizations, and individuals want to participate in or sponsor your event?” Answer these questions and then use this guide to make your tournament a success.

SELECT A DATE, TIME, AND GOLF COURSE
The key to a good turnout is proper planning. When selecting a date for your tournament, make sure to check for conflicting area events, other tournaments, travel holidays, etc. Choose a date and time best suited for the golfers you anticipate. Determine whether tee times or a shotgun start are best suited for your needs. If you are planning any food service or peripheral activities, a Shotgun start will probably work best.

TIME: _______: _______    AM     PM
GOLF COURSE: _______________________________________________

SELECT A TOURNAMENT DIRECTOR
This person should be willing to put their heart, soul, and most of all, time into organizing a great event.

DIRECTOR: __________________________________________________

SELECT A FORMAT
The format you choose will affect the number of players you attract, the time it takes to complete the round, and the amount of fun your players have. Time is a crucial element, so you will want to review a variety of formats and choose the one which best suits your tournament goals. Regardless of the format you choose, a variety of team options are available to help increase participation and set your tournament apart.

CHECK ONE:
- Corporate Teams
- Pro-Am Teams
- Club Teams
- Celebrity/Amateur Teams
- Singles Teams
- Youth Teams
- Ladies Teams
- Father/Son, Mother/Daughter, Parent/Child, Husband/Wife Teams

SELECT CONTESTS AND EVENTS
Contests during your tournament will keep your participants interested and looking forward to the next hole. Try to have at least one contest per nine holes and make certain to reward your winners with a prize. If you have a number of ladies playing in your event, make sure to include separate contests for them.

CHECK ONE:
- Hole In One Contest
- Putting (see Putting Section)
- Longest Drive
- Straightest Drive
- Closest to the Hole
- Longest Putt
- Million Dollar Shoot-out (see Shoot-out section)

SELECT A THEME
You will want to have a “memorable golf tournament” rather than just “another golf tournament” so it is important to select an appealing theme. Try to create a unique theme based on a name, celebrity, format, or community event. You will want to include your theme in your tournament format, decorations, meals, prizes, player gifts, and peripheral events.

☐ SET A PRELIMINARY BUDGET
There are two ways to balance your budget: (1) Set your entry fee and other fees to whatever the market will bear and plan your expenses around that. (2) List all of your expenses and peripheral income areas (see Additional Revenue and Sponsorship sections) and determine how much you will have to charge to balance the budget. If you are trying to raise money, don’t forget to budget your profits!

☐ SELL SPONSORSHIPS
Selling sponsorships is the way to acquire the commitment that leads to a successful event. Sponsorships should be developed between the tournament and local businesses. Design various levels of sponsorship. Each level should entail some form of tournament recognition and participation.

Sell as many sponsorships as you can—It is imperative your sponsors feel as if they are getting their money's worth. Make sure to send a thank you letter and tournament summary at the conclusion of your event.

SPONSORSHIP LEVELS:
- Title Sponsor would include name recognition in the actual tournament name, numerous playing spots, recognition on tee prizes, holes, etc.
- Corporate Sponsors may receive a hole and playing spots
- Hole Sponsors would receive a hole and a playing spot
- Refreshment Sponsor
- Driving Range Sponsor

☐ PLAN PUBLICITY
The more exposure your tournament gets, the more participants you will get. Besides the entry form, there are many other ways to publicize your event.

WAYS TO PUBLICIZE YOUR EVENT:
- Flyers/Posters—Post them at golf courses, gyms, sporting goods stores, etc.
- Signs/Banners—Hang them in high traffic intersections and other areas. Make sure to obtain permission prior to putting them up.
- Newspapers—Local shoppers guide and other free publications are a good way to get the word out. An ad in the local newspaper will be quite effective, yet be prepared to budget for it.
- Radio/TV—Search for free opportunities to announce your tournament. Public service announcements, local talk shows, press conferences, and calendar of events are all effective.

- DESIGN ENTRY FORMS
  Make sure your entry form is appealing. Colored ink/paper can do wonders. If your event is high dollar, custom invitations should be used. Design the entry to reflect your theme. Make sure to incorporate your title sponsor’s name and logo into the design.

ENTRY FORM ESSENTIALS:
- Name of tournament
- Date and time
- Name and address and telephone number of golf course
- Entry deadline
- Entry fee
- What is included in the entry (green fees, lunch, tee prizes, etc.)
- Prizes
- Remittance address and phone
- Name, address, phone of participant
- Handicap
- Names, addresses, and phone numbers of others on team
- Shirt size

TEE PRIZES:

2nd Place ____________________________________________
3rd Place ____________________________________________
4th Place ____________________________________________

- FINALIZE FOOD AND BEVERAGE
  Decide on the menu, beverages, entertainment, and decorations. Make sure the room or area you are using has appropriate cooking and serving facilities, as well as electrical if needed.

- FINALIZE YOUR BUDGET
  By now, you should have a good hold on your expenses. Determine either what the market will bear for an entry, or what your expenses require.

- SIGN UP VOLUNTEERS
  You will need at least 3-5 volunteers on site the day of your event. Start now recruiting these people for help filling the tournament.

INSURED CONTESTS:

HAVE A MILLION DOLLAR SHOOTOUT
A shoot-out will create incredible excitement and marketing appeal before, during, and after your golf tournament. Imagine advertising your tournament as “A chance to win $1,000,000!” Think you’ll have a problem getting players? Think you’ll one up the next guy?

Qualifying — Qualifying for this shoot-out is generally done one of two ways. You can sell raffle tickets or chances to qualify in some manner such as putting, closest to the pin, longest drive, etc., or you can offer free qualifying through the tournament itself. Closest to the pin, 1st place team, last place team, etc. The goal here is to select no more than five (5) qualifiers to shoot for the dough.

Finals — Each qualifier receives one chance from 165 yards to make a hole-in-one for the grand prize. Generally $1,000,000. If no hole in one is made, a consolation prize can be awarded for closest to the pin.

Keys To Success — Make sure you advertise your tournament as “A chance to win $1,000,000!” Use a hole close to the clubhouse for the finals so your contestants and other golfers can be spectators. Remember, winner or no winner, the goal is to sell out and create excitement and memora- bility for your tournament.

HAVE A PUTTING CONTEST
This is a great way to generate excitement as well as revenue. Give away up to $25,000 for a putting contest insured by Hole In One International. You can either sell tickets and draw for contestants, or allow everyone to try for the prize. We have a contest for all situations.

One Putt for the Dough — Qualify or draw up to five (5) contestants to take a shot at a 50 foot or longer putt. One stroke and your contestant goes home with the prize! Make sure to make an event out of it and gather all your tournament participants to watch the excitement.

Three Putt Combination — This one is designed for everyone in your event to take a crack at the prize. Each participant must make a 10 foot putt, followed by a 30 foot putt, and finally a 50 foot or longer putt for all the cash. Give away small prizes for making each of the first two putts. If your tournament is a Shotgun start, you may want to include this putting contest as the 19th hole during your event. As players come off the 18th hole they would proceed to the putting contest before moving on to the 1st hole.
